KARE INSIDE
THE STORY

VULCANO COFFEE AND SIDE TABLES

Metal, water, earth and fire - the elements of nature provided the inspiration for this series of tables in volcanic grey. The table tops are made of solid sandstone and their edges seem to be shaped by the forces of nature. The craftsmen in our workshops achieve this effect by the elaborate processing of every single top by hand.

Each Vulcano table is individually designed and thus a unique piece, bearing the signature of an Indian stonemason. Work on a single table can take up to five days. The frame made of a curved steel rod is also forged and hammered by hand, and we deliberately leave striking traces of manufacture and processing on the metal surface.

Metal, water, earth and fire - the elements of nature provided the inspiration for this series of tables in volcanic grey.

ALL THAT GLITTERS IS GOLD

We draw power from symbolism: gold stands for the sun, its warmth and shimmering luminosity. We bring the warm light of the afternoon sun into rooms with design accents in gold, including pink and matt gold. Discreetly used, this colour shade is a flattering contrast to wood and vibrant structures.

THE BARE NECESSITIES!

NATURAL MATERIALS

Fur, wood and cotton offer cosiness and an invitation to cuddle. In our opinion you can never have enough blankets, pillows and carpets!

INDIRECT LIGHT

Lamps that provide cosy light generate a feeling of comfort on cold days. We love glare-free light that illuminates all corners.

WARM COLOURS

For that cosy autumn look we use nature and combine warm wood with beige, green and golden accents. Twigs and branches bring freshness into the house.

STONE-IN-TONE DECORATION

Different shades of cream combined with each other provide brightness in the dark season.

WINTER ACCESSORIES

A polar bear as a side table, a tortoise under the Christmas tree... even the cold season should be fun. And we love witty, eye-catching accessories.

DINING ROOM

A man and a woman are sitting at a dark wood dining table, smiling and eating together. The woman is on the left, wearing a white tank top and a black patterned skirt. The man is on the right, wearing a white polo shirt and grey trousers. They are both using chopsticks. On the table are glasses of water, a bottle of soy sauce, and a bowl of food. The background features a wall with a rustic, weathered wood texture. The scene is framed by a white border.

THE STORY BEHIND

DINING TABLE KALIF

India is a magical place that inspires creative people over and over again. The country's legendary colours, magnificent architecture and traditional craftsmanship have inspired our design team to create unique furniture. In ancient temples in the north-eastern state of Gujarat on the Arabian Sea we discovered beautiful, traditional coffered doors with elaborate carvings.

India has long guarded the originals as a cultural treasure. In cooperation with a local manufacturer we now produce table tops which are modelled on the historical doors, the aesthetics of the carvings and the atmosphere of mystical temples. With Kalif you will be purchasing for your home a handcrafted masterpiece made of recycled wood, on which craftsmen have worked for up to 20 days.

Series Kalif:

A wonderful unique piece from the Orient, also available as a coffee table.

A COLOURFUL CHARACTER

HE'S AN UNCONVENTIONAL BIRD OF PARADISE WHO IS GAINING AN EVER-GROWING CROWD OF FANS AND FOLLOWERS THANKS TO HIS FLASHY OUTFITS AND OFFBEAT PERFORMANCES. WITH HIS BLOG "THE FABULOUS LIFE OF RICCI", IN WHICH HE ENTERTAININGLY AND HONESTLY DOCUMENTS HIS REVERIES AND EXPERIENCES, RICCARDO SIMONETTI IS NOW ONE OF THE MOST SUCCESSFUL MALE BLOGGERS IN GERMANY. BUT THE "HOPELESS DREAMER", AS HE DESCRIBES HIMSELF, IS FAR MORE THAN JUST A BLOGGER AND WEAVER OF PHANTASIES: HE'S AN AUTHOR, MODEL, ACTOR, PRESENTER - AND NOW ALSO A COMMITTED INTERIOR DESIGN ENTHUSIAST. WITH THE AID OF KARE, IN HIS BERLIN HOME RICCARDO HAS DEDICATED HIMSELF TO WHAT HE MOST ENJOYS DOING: AS HE HIMSELF DESCRIBES IT, BUILDING HIS DREAM WORLD.

AT HOME WITH RICCARDO SIMONETTI.

"My outfits are always out-of-the-ordinary," says the 25-year-old, who lived in Munich for a long time. "I'd like to transfer that to my furnishing style." The fact that he chose articles of furniture from KARE to make his Berlin home a living space to match his personality is mainly due to their unmistakable character: "The furniture created by KARE looks just like my clothes: colourful, imaginative, unconventional, never boring and just a little crazy." His aim is for his apartment to create a movie-like setting and for every small corner to make an impact.

Riccardo is tackling the fascinating world of furnishing with the support of our interior designer Flavia. In order to express his own wealth of different facets, the irregularity of natural beauty and the clean lines of steel create a striking contrast at the dining table, for example. Here the solid acacia wood creates originality and a natural atmosphere, which is offset by the modern form of the steel base. Colourful retro chairs create a break with the conventional.

A clean interior in black and white simply wouldn't be his style. "I think that kind of design is nice, but I'm just too chaotic. And that should also be reflected in my furniture!" The gaze then inevitably falls on the couch, whose grey is the last thing you would expect in the colour scheme of a cheerfully chaotic character, but which - with its spacious loft character - enhances the room with just the right amount of eccentricity.

"I've been living out of a suitcase for years," he says as he swings lightly into the mustard-yellow armchair in the corner of the living room. "That's why it's so important for me to create a haven of peace during the few days I'm home." Flanked by the gold and silver-coloured vinyl discs of his pop icons which Riccardo has mounted on the walls, the sophisticated Vegas armchair with its elegant appearance invites you to relax. The brass-coloured steel feet and the velvety gold of the fabric transport you to the glamorous Hollywood of the 1950s and 60s. As a complementary colour to the deep blue walls, the armchair rises from the seclusion of a corner existence and develops an attractive luminosity that is just right for those who like to reach for the stars and sometimes wonder what it would be like to live in Hollywood. The fact that Riccardo loves the spotlight is also reflected here: with a mixture of industrial charm and a film studio, the Metropolis standard lamp showcases armchairs and their occupants as if in a Tarantino movie. "I want my apartment to look as if it were a film set and make all its corners appear telegenic," emphasises Riccardo, as he discusses the look with our furnishing expert.

"THE FURNITURE CREATED BY KARE LOOKS JUST LIKE MY CLOTHES: COLOURFUL, IMAGINATIVE, UNCONVENTIONAL, NEVER BORING AND JUST A LITTLE CRAZY."

RICCARDO SIMONETTI

"Don't leave any corners unfurnished" is the motto of the experts, but the right brilliant idea is often not easy to achieve without professional support. An empty corner creates a feeling of incompleteness and discomfort. And who wants to feel uncomfortable at home, surrounded by bare walls with the charm of a cold cathedral, when you can just as easily conjure up a cosy, stylish temple in the corners of your home? That's when we talk about a "cosy corner" - or perhaps "crazy corner", if you're planning for a flamboyant dreamer like Riccardo.

This colourful character finds his starring role in front of tropical wallpaper: in the jungle design of the Jungle Fever swivel chair modernity and functionality meet colourfulness and imagination. Wallpaper and room merge with a large indoor plant to create a virtuoso living environment. Wearing military boots, cargo pants and a bomber jacket, the fashion blogger jumps into the set and escapes into the world he prefers to dream of: the glamorous life of a film star.

And now things really get garish. After the Jesus image, pop icons and jungle fever we turn the corner and all of a sudden we encounter one thing above all: pink. From pale rosé to Barbie pink, the walls of the narrow corridor accompany us like a promising foretaste on our way into the heart of his dream home. Shortly before the end of the corridor, as we are about to turn right into the room which is our destination, Riccardo stops - so abruptly that we almost run into each other like in a with an icon print and a pole-dance pole. Curtains, footstool and armchair gleam in red velvet, and there's a feather boa and a director's chair. We fly through the set of Moulin Rouge, followed by that of the Blue Angel in Berlin's Babelsberg of the 1920s and we capture the breathy kisses of Marilyn Monroe - a journey through the cinematic glamour of the 20th century.

rear-end collision. "For me it's important to have little corners for selfies and photos everywhere," says the star blogger, whose fan community wants to be fed daily with the absorbing details of his everyday life. He perches among sequins and pearls on a luggage trolley which - with its golden accents - is reminiscent of the VIP service of a first-class hotel like the famous Chateau Marmont - a luxury hotel for stars and starlets in Los Angeles, where you might meet Hollywood stars like George Clooney in the bar. In Riccardo's ambience it looks perfectly at home, of course, but the Vegas luggage trolley will also set stylish accents in the domestic setting of a normal mortal's home, and has recently become a coveted interior darling of glamour-loving furnishing fans.

A couple of selfies later the door opens to the world in which Riccardo obviously feels most comfortable. Here you'll find everything his heart beats for. "This is where I pick out the props for the movie of my life in the morning!" Riccardo has brought to life the dream of a pop diva's dressing room, featuring a make-up table with illuminated mirror, a screen

KARE HOME STORY

With Riccardo Simonetti the KARE furnishing consultants, in line with Riccardo's wishes, placed great emphasis on individualism and created a furnishing showcase whose splendour and glamour is enhanced by a harmonious colour concept.

Not a new person, but in this setting we now meet an exuberant Riccardo in an entirely different garb. His sequin-covered outfit sparkles and shines in competition with his own radiance as he poses by his pole-dance pole. As solid as a rock, the ruby red velvet stool holds the fort below him, while offering additional storage space for all kinds of props under its comfortably upholstered lid. On one side of the room the matching chaise longue takes pride of place with elegance and grace.

The 'Desire' upholstery range is a stylistic hit for the dressing room. Its gracefully curved elements and red velvet in timeless button stitching turn the charm of the boudoir into every woman's dream room. Here feminine elegance finds a quiet retreat for decadent dreams and offers inspiration from the age when the 'grande dame' was the epitome of style and grace. However, you don't have to be a duchess to bring this kind of charm into your home. And if you want to live the life of a style icon, it isn't absolutely necessary to have a separate dressing room either. As eye-catchers next to the bed, velvet stools are a skilful statement in terms of savoir-vivre, and are wonderfully suitable as graceful receptacles for magazines, books and accessories.

TOP TIP FROM THE KARE VISUAL MERCHANDISING TEAM

"How do you actually design the perfect picture wall? We've got some ideas: give all the pictures a shared element, e.g. the material of the frame, or a colour that appears again and again... the motifs and styles can then be freely mixed! Even spaces between pictures bring harmony to the wall. And of course the spirit level is a must!"

FACILITIES FURNISHING

Mirror Munich Bar
Occamstraße 7
80802 Munich

"Setting up the Mirror Munich Bar was a creative challenge for us. We wanted to achieve a cool look, but without filling the bar full of decorative objects. So we started with the walls and ceiling - and visually enlarged the room many times over with fancy mirrors! Light is therefore the main theme of the room, and since our lamps resemble design objects anyway, they reinforce the impression of spaciousness once more. The many mirror collages are of course also a highlight for guests, who enjoy taking selfies with a tasty drink in their hand! If you are interested in having large mirrors on the ceiling at home, we'll be happy to advise you and find a way to fix them."

Grand Plaza Nampula Hotel
Nampula, Mozambique

"We furnish many interesting properties, but furnishing the Grand Hotel with its 116 rooms and spacious residential suite was a very special project for us. Together with the architect Maria João Zagallo we looked for elegant furniture that would reflect the stylish flair of the building and invite guests to linger. The cube-shaped velvet furniture harmonises perfectly with the copper-coloured highlights, and visitors love the cosy and glamorous atmosphere."

CULTURE

Gotokuji temple – Birthplace of the lucky cat

Legend has it that a cat who lived in the Zen temple of Gotokuji once saved the life of a prince there by beckoning to him. Seconds later the lightning struck the place where the prince had stood only seconds before. The cult of the waving cat, the maneki neko, was born. Since then, it has been regarded as a symbol of happiness and is used as a thank you for fulfilled wishes or as a good luck charm in the impressive temple buildings.

LISBON

EUROPE'S HOTSPOT ON THE ATLANTIC

Inexpensive, casual, hip. Lisbon is a place where even the most restless traveller will want to linger for some time. Culture, food, nightlife and beautiful beaches make the Portuguese capital the perfect destination for a city break.

SIGHTSEEING

Eléctricos de Lisboa: the yellow trams

This means of transport with its characteristic signal yellow colour is one of the city's landmarks and an absolute must! Since 1873 the trains and their passengers have been winding their way through the narrow historic lanes of the old city on the hop-on and hop-off principle, and they're therefore perfectly suited for sightseeing tours.

BARS

An evening out in Barrio Alto

As soon as the sun goes down, an entire quarter comes to life: in Barrio Alto there are countless bars offering tapas as well as wine and other drinks. Here young and old spend the warm nights, usually outside in front of the bars. Simply drift from one bar to the next to the sounds of fado, the traditional Portuguese music! By the way: the trip to the Barrio Alto quarter in the upper town is spectacular because it is accessed by a 45 m high elevator, the so-called "Elevador de Santa Justa".

BEACH BREAK

Praia de Galapinhos – the most beautiful beach in Europe

The most beautiful beach in Europe can be found within an hour's drive of Lisbon. In spite of its tropical beauty, the white sand is not yet overrun by tourists. Even the outward journey along the Atlantic coast is breathtakingly beautiful.
